PERSPECTIVES ON AGEING

TUES. 27 NOVEMBER 2012, 12-2 PM

An overview of current research
Registration from 11.30 am, lunch provided at 1 pm

Presenters

Prof. Mary Barrett
School of Management & Marketing

Prof. Richard Fleming
Director of the NSW/ACT Dementia Training Study Centre

A/Prof. Helen Hasan
Director SInet
School of Economics

Dr. Andrew Jenner
Illawarra Health and Medical Research Inst. (IHMRI)

Dr. Peter McLean
School of Management & Marketing

Dr. Ping Yu
Information Systems and Technology (SISAT)

Venue
University of Wollongong
Innovation Campus
AHSRI Training Room, Level 1, Enterprise 1

Numbers limited
RSVP by 23 November
yoke@uow.edu.au

The Social Innovation Network (SInet) @ UoW brings together researchers from many disciplines to investigate the development of new concepts, strategies and tools that empower individuals, communities, profit and non-profit organisations and the government to improve quality of life where quality of life means material standard of living as well as personal well-being in terms of health and environment and social harmony.

http://research.uow.edu.au/sinet